

I have completed the web development course during my bachelors and am currently doing a full stack development course which enables me to understand the concepts of JavaScript easily and excel in this era without failure. I am sure of working in the industry with all the knowledge that I have acquired through my years of experience in this field. I aim to achieve high distinction in this unit considering my experience with javascript.